

furniture

tree's company

Timber accents that go against the grain

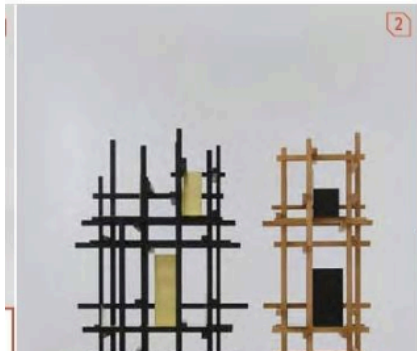

1. Thom Feugère's Steel Wood side table in whitewashed solid American ash with powder-coated metal-tube base and plastic floor glides by EQ3. eq3.com
2. Trama II and Trama I limited edition shelving units in natural and stained hain oak and aged or natural brass by Escrow Studio. esrowe.com
3. Blackbird Rack bookshelf in natural and painted oak by Ethnicraft. ethnicraft.com
4. Play cupboard in ash with glass shelf and brass accents by Shigeki Yamamoto. shigekiyanamoto.com
5. Tea tables in gray elm by Christophe Delcourt through Avenue Road. us.avenue-road.com
6. Federico Stefanovich's Mira table and chair in teak by Basamento. basamento.mx
7. Laders Petite armoire in birch with leather accents and bronze base by Collette Amédondo through Maison Gerard. maisongerard.com
8. Woodbine sideboard in solid white oak with tung oil finish by Sun at Six. sunat-six.com
9. Brodie Neill's Theorem tambour screen in Douglas fir and linen, Focus table in ebonized oak with slate top, and Cowrie chair in ebonized ash-veneer plywood by Made in Ratio. madeinratio.com
10. Hull Parabola side table in maple with kelp stain and honed Carrara Venetino marble top by O&G Studio. ogstudio.com

A SENSITIVE LUSTON

tree's company

Timber accents that go against the grain

5

Interior Design Magazine

Spring Market Tabloid 2019